Dear [redacted] 25X1C8c
25X1A9a

I forward herewith to [redacted] for personal delivery to you as father of the methods conference idea Copy No. 1 of the Proceedings of the Second Conference on Intelligence Methods and a copy of the supplement thereto. I am sending personal copies also to [redacted] 25X1C8c [redacted] by this same channel and am having 25X1C8c
thirty-two additional copies of each document delivered to [redacted] 25X1C8c [redacted] here in Washington for such use as you see fit.

I appreciated your letter of 12 November, thanking us for what we did to make the conference a success, but I must in turn thank you for the substantial contribution [redacted] to that success. As I hope you will agree, the contents of the Proceedings are evidence that all of us together made a really appreciable contribution to the body of knowledge in our profession. As a recognized "senior statesman" in the field and 'father' of the conferences, you can take a great deal of satisfaction in these accomplishments.

Sincerely yours,

ILLEGIB

Ray S. Cline
Deputy Director (Intelligence)
